The White Man's Burden

can be named in the single word—dyspepsia. It is the one disease, which more than any other, affects the American people. It is common to all classes and all conditions. It makes life miserable. It mars family happiness. It interferes with business and pleasure alike, and it discounts a man's usefulness just as much as it discounts his happiness.

There's a remedy for dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has lifted this burden from the bodies of hundreds of thousands. It cures ninety-eight out of every hundred who give it a fair and faithful trial.

"I used ten bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and several vials of his Pleasant Pellets a year ago this spring, and have had no trouble with indigestion since," writes Mr. W. T. Thompson, of Townsend, Broadwater, Co., Montana. "Words fail to tell how thankful I am for the relief, as I had suffered so much and it seemed that the doctors could do me no good. I got down in weight to 125 pounds, and was not able to work at all. Now I weigh nearly 160 and can do a day's work on the farm. I have recommended your medicine to several, and shall always have a good word to say for Dr. Pierce and his medicine."

Free. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. It contains 100 pages and over 700 illustrations. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth binding to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

HEIRS TO SCOTCH ESTATE.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette: Washington, D. C., June 18, 1901.

I enclose you a clipping from the Kansas City Star of May 8 regarding millions in Scotland due the American heirs. Why not let the Virginia members of that family know through the columns of your well-known paper of their fortune? VIRGINIAN.

A woman who expects soon to receive a share of an estate in Scotland valued at 200 million dollars, was in Kansas City on the night of May 7. Here is not an idle dream. There have been so many estates in Europe for which heirs could not be found and so many, when claimed, have proved to be visionary, that a story of fabulous wealth such as this is received with extreme caution. But this Scotch estate is actual. It is several miles wide, has never been in litigation, the court of chancery has never fastened its clutches on the fortune amassed by Lord George Hume, and, what is better still, the whole estate is being cleared up and settlements made with the heirs by the British parliament. Among these heirs is Mrs. A. B. Lewis, 1836 east Eighth street, Kansas City; Mrs. H. M. Hume Buck, Mrs. Cora Archibald and Mrs. S. W. Douglas, of Las Vegas, N. M.; Julia Hume, Washington, D. C.; Miss Julia Hume, Edinburg, Ky., and R. D. Hume, a millionaire salmon packer of California.

The story of the struggle, continued through many years, to straighten out the tangled threads of the history of the Hume estates would fill a large volume. Several of the American heirs are wealthy and were too much occupied in the chase for more gold to search through musty records for pedigree. The indifference was vexatious to the heirs who really needed the money. Some there were who followed each clue so assiduously and worked so unremittingly that they became almost fanatical on the subject of the Hume heirs. Of all the American Hume heirs there was probably not one who knew more about the genealogy of the family than Mrs. Hume, now living in Las Vegas, whose daughter is Mrs. A. B. Lewis of Kansas City. She had at one time a large drawing made, showing the branches of the family tree from its earliest available history, and never gave up the hope that one day she would come into her rightful share of the big estates left by her rich relatives over the sea. It required more money, however, than Mrs. Hume could afford to spend, and very likely she would never have lived to see her dream realized had it not been for Mrs. Henrietta Hume Munro, widow of the millionaire New York publisher, who has gone to Scotland to hasten the settlement of the estate. Mrs. Munro determined to bring to a close the long and tiresome fight that had been made by a few of the American heirs. She is doing all she can to effect a settlement, and some day, not so very far distant, large amount of English and Scotch money will find its way over the ocean, and very likely a portion of it will reach Kansas City, for Mrs. Lewis is a direct heir and will come in for a share with the others when the distribution takes place.

The estates of Lord George Hume, earl, among others, the titles of Lord Hume of Wedderburn, Earl of Marchmont, Earl of Ely, Earl of Dunbar and Earl of Polwarth. These titles take precedence over a large number of the oldest earl tories of England, and the estates are some of the finest show places of Europe. Wedderburn castle is situated one and a half miles from Dunfermline, in Berwickshire. Marchmont town is at present the home of Sir Hugh Hume Campbell, and Paxton House is occupied by Lord David Milne Home-Hume, member of Parliament for Berwickshire. Lady Kirk and Lenthall are situated on the North sea and are priceless with wealth of age and traditions.—[Kansas City Star.]

HIS LIFE SAVED

By Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I am sure that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at one time saved my life," says A. E. Lafollette, of Gregory Landing, Clarke county, Missouri. "I was in such bad shape that the doctors said I could not live. When I was at the lowest ebb, one of my neighbors brought in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and I took it and got instant relief. I soon got up and around. That was nine years ago and I am still in good health. Since then that medicine has always been in my house and always will be. It is the best on earth." For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Digests what you eat.

We would like to call your attention to the following letter: Dear Sirs—I have been suffering from dyspepsia for 21 years. Whenever I would take a strong diet I would bloat up in the stomach. I would suffer great pains in the head and stomach and would be obliged to take to my bed and remain sometimes for a day and night. Nothing I took did me any good until last winter, when some one advised my husband to get for me a bottle of KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE, which he did. I used several bottles of it and I am happy to say I can eat any kind of solid diet. I can sleep well at night and I feel like another person altogether. I cannot give Kodol Dyspepsia Cure too much praise, and I will highly recommend it to all sufferers of dyspepsia.—Mrs. Peter Kline, Hopewell, Pa.

It can't help but do you good

There is a very simple reason why Kodol Dyspepsia Cure invariably cures the worst cases of indigestion, even after everything else fails, and that is because it is the only preparation known that contains all the digestants and completely digests what you eat. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure Prepared only by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The 81 bottle contains 24 times the 2c. size.
